Numb. 2022

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday April 2. to Monday April 6. 1685.

Whitehall, April 4.

THe following Addresses have been Presented to His Majesty, who received them very Graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Addres of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and the Inhabitants of the County of Berks.

May it please your Majesty,

AS we were most sensibly afflicted at the surprizing loss of our late most Gracious Soveraign, so we cannot but withall Thankfulness acknowledge the great Mercy of God, and Congratulate our own happiness in your Majesties Peaceable Succession to the Imperial Crown of these Realms, notwithstanding the malicious oppositions of Gods, your Majesties, and our Adversaries.

And we do render our most humble and hearty Thanks for your Majesties most Gracious Declaration of Maintaining the Church of England, and the Laws as now Established, upon which we Build our Confidence as on a Rock, the Truth of your Royal Word, having ever been as undoubted as your Courage in the greatest dangers hath been undanted.

Wherefore we most cheerfully lay our Lives and Fortunes at your Majesties Feet, fearing no danger while under the Protection of your approved Valour and Justice And our Interest as well as Duty doth and ever will, oblige us sincerely to Pray, for your Majesties long Life and Happy Reign over us, and our Posterities, as becomes

Your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects.

To the Kings most Excellent Majesty,

The Humble Addres of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of your Majesties Antient Borough of Wootton Basset in the County of Wilts.

Sheweth,

THat as we cannot but be deeply sensible of our great loss in the Death of your dear Brother and our most Dread Soveraign of Blessed Memory; so we do thankfully adore that Divine Providence, which hath so peaceably seated your Majesty our undoubted Lord upon the Throne of your Ancestors to the Joy of all your Majesties Loyal Subjects. And we most Humbly presume to tender your Majesty our most hearty Thanks and Acknowledgments for your great Grace and Condescention, vouchsafed in your late Gracious Declarations, for which we acknowledge our selves for ever bound in all Duty and Gratitude to Pray for your Majesties long and happy Reign over us, and although this our Humble and Loyal Address comes not so early as it ought to have done, yet it is with this most humble and Dutiful assurance, that we shall ever be ready to render your Majesty our humblest Duty and Obedience, and to serve your Majesty in our stations with our Lives and Fortunes. In Testimony whereof we have hereunto set our Common Seal of our said Corporation, the Six and Twentieth Day of March, in the First year of your Majesties Reign.

There have been likewise Presented to His Majesty very Loyal Addresses, From the Nobility, Gentry and Freeholders of the County of Kent. From the Lord Bishop and Clergy of the Diocess of Norwich. From the Dean and Members of the Cathedral Church of Sarum, together with the Clergy within the said Deans exempted and peculiar Jurisdiction. From the Grand Juries at the Assizes held for the County of York March the 9th, 1684. From the Grand-Jury of the County Palatine of Lancaster at the Assizes held at Lancaster, the 21st of March, 1684. From Ferdinando Hodelstone of Millom Castle in the County of Cumberland Esq; with his Freeholders, Tenants and Inhabitants within his Lordship, and Seigniory of Millome, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

Vienna, March 25. The Armenian, who lately arrived here from Buda hath been sent back with this Answer; That the Emperor will not enter into any Negotiation of Peace but joyntly with his Allies the King of Poland, and the Republick of Venice. The Count de Breuner parted from hence the 23d Instant to receive on the Frontiers the Troops which the Princes of Lunenburg send to the Emperors assistance. The Letters from Hungary asure us that the Turks in Newheusel are reduced to that condition that they will not be able to subsist many Weeks longer without a very considerable supply; And that the Visier of Buda is therefore preparing to make his utmost effort for the relief of this important place. Colonel Heusler in the mean time has taken what care he can to secure the passages of the River Gran and Ipol; And when the Troops that are now marching have joyned him he will be in a condition to go and meet the Enemy. They Write from Upper Hungary that the Imperialists have defeated a party of Rebels that were going with a great Convoy of Provisions to Esperies.

Hamburgh, April 6. The Letters from Warsaw of the 23 past, tell us, that there had yet been nothing concluded in the Dyet, the disputes between the Deputies of Lithuania and those of Poland having taken up all their time. The Troops of the Princes of Lunenburg are drawing together in order to their march for Hungary.

Hague, April 6. The States of Holland and West-Frizeland reassembled the 3d Instant; And resumed the debate concerning the reform of the Troops; Which Amsterdam and five Towns more continue to press with much earnestness, and the Nobles and the other 12 Towns as zealously to oppose; Some of these demand that the matter may be concluded by plurality of Voices; but it's believed a middle way will be taken that may content both sides. Mr. Skelton Envoy Extraordinary from His Majesty of Great Britain to this State arrived here on Tuesday last: And the next day Mr. Chudleigh parted from hence for England. Monsieur de Lawergne late Governor of Deventer is going into the Emperors Service, where it's said he will have a very considerable Command. Monsieur Owerkerk returned hither the 4th Instant from England.

Brussels, April 3. We hear from Leige that the Bishop of Strasbourg is gone from thence to Bonne to be present at the Assembly of the States of the Arch-Bishoprick of Cologne, as well as to endeavor a composure of the differences between the Elector and City of Cologne. The Prince de Salme is arrived
